¹Blanks in the table denote zeros

²Long-term mining or reclamation facilities include land and access roads, temporary dams and impoundments; diversion and collector ditches, water and air monitoring sites, topsoil stockpiles, overburden stockpiles, repair, storage, and construction areas; coal stockpile, loading, and processing areas, railroads, coal conveyors, refuse piles and coal mine waste impoundments, head-of-borrow fills, valley fills, ventilation shafts and entryways, and noncoal waste disposal areas (partage dumps and coal combustion by-products disposal areas)

³Does not include 35.49 acres proposed for disturbance as a part of the Lila Canyon facilities. DOGM originally approved the application for the disturbance on July 27, 2001. However, the Utah Board of Oil, Gas and Mining remanded the approval on December 14, 2001. DOGM reevaluated the application and on May 18, 2007 issued the permit. Construction at Lila is still pending.

⁴Not included in this disturbed acreage total are 93.18 disturbed acres in an access road that was removed from the permit area through the bond release process.

⁵Channel Canyon portal breakout reclamation, no phase I and II bond release prior to phase III bond release.

⁶Additional 18.67 acres approved for disturbance. However, not yet disturbed.

⁷New-Tech Mine Corporation, New-Tech Mine, which disturbed 3 acres. DOGM permitted the site for exploration but never permitted it for active mining under the Utah permanent regulatory program.

⁸No phase I and II bond release prior to phase III bond release.

⁹Utah forfeited the bond on November 22, 1996. A Utah-hired contractor completed reclamation in July 1999.

¹⁰Utah forfeited the bond on May 24, 1991. A Utah-hired contractor completed reclamation on October 4, 2000.

¹¹Utah forfeited the bond on January 26, 1989. A Utah-hired contractor completed reclamation on November 20, 1997.

¹²Utah forfeited the bond on June 23, 1989. A Utah-hired contractor completed reclamation on April 17, 1997.

M Utah forfeited the bond on May 1, 2003. A Utah-hired contractor completed reclamation on November 5, 2005.

N 11.89 acres disturbed during emergency rescue operations
