Re: Navajo Mine Permit Number NM-0003F; Update 1304 – Ownership and Control Information (Attachment C)

Dear Mr. Yellowman,

BHP Navajo Coal Company (BNCC) has previously submitted for your review and approval an application for the transfer of Permit No. NM-0003F. Consistent with SMCRA's regulatory requirements, BNCC is now submitting, seven (7) copies of Update 1304 – Ownership and Control Information, which updates information previously provided in the Transfer Application Package. Apart from the noted updates, the Transfer Application permit application package is not affected.

As previously explained, immediately following the conversion of Navajo Mine Coal Company from a corporation to limited liability company ("NMCC, LLC), BHP Billiton New Mexico Coal, NMCC, LLC's parent company, plans to sell 100% of NMCC, LLC's membership interest to Navajo Transitional Energy Company ("NTEC"). The change in ownership and control does not require OSM approval. See 30 C.F.R. § 774.17; 72 Fed. Reg. 68000, 68008-09 (December 3, 2007). The regulations require timely submittal of appropriate information advising of these changes and updating specified SMCRA permit information.

This letter provides notification of the change in ownership and control, and instructions for the replacement of updated SMCRA permit contents follow:
